

Board Diversity Progress Report

The Nomination and Election (NOMELEC) under the Corporate Governance Committee (CGCom) is responsible for reviewing the board composition, the profile of the candidates to the board, leveraging the diverse background of directors to include professional skills, regional and industry experience, race, gender and other distinctions.

Under the Policy, the NOMELEC reviews and assesses Board composition on behalf of the Board and recommends the appointment of new Directors.

- In reviewing Board composition, the Committee will consider the benefits of all aspects of diversity including, but not limited to, those described above, in order to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
- In identifying suitable candidates for appointment to the Board, the Committee will consider candidates on merit against objective criteria and with due regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board.

Criteria

The company has set the following criteria in selecting candidates to the board:

1. Directors with extensive industry experience primarily in construction related businesses
2. Directors with differing background and professional skills/expertise such as, but not limited to business management, finance and accounting, governance, operations and risk management, among others.
3. Participation of women in the Board

In 2022, the elected board of directors met the above criteria as presented in the board composition matrix table.

Methodology

In furtherance of Board Diversity, the Company attained by its annual meeting on May 17, 2022, and thereafter maintained, a Board composition of nine (9) directors in which 44% of them are women, or four (4) female directors out of nine directors. Sixty-six percent or 6 directors are non-executives, three of whom are independent directors.

In the 2022 Annual Stockholders’ Meeting, the NOMELEC received nine (9) candidates to the election of the board of directors, whom were three new nominations for independent directors. The NOMELEC reviewed the profile of the candidates and made recommendations to the Board. No other directors were nominated.

The nine candidates possessed all qualifications and none of the disqualifications for nomination as regular and independent director under SRC Rule 38 and the Code of Corporate Governance, the Corporation’s By-Laws and Manual on Corporate Governance.

The final list of nominees for election for regular and independent directors of the Corporation, was included in the definitive information statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Philippine Stock Exchange, and distributed to stockholders of the Corporation, regards the Corporation’s annual stockholders’ meeting held on May 17, 2022.

Any search firm engaged to assist the Board or a committee of the Board in identifying candidates for appointment to the Board will be specifically directed to include diverse candidates. In the 2022 ASM, no other candidates were nominated from any search or professional firms.

Board Composition

The NOMELEC will periodically assess the expertise, experience, skills and backgrounds of its directors in light of the needs of the Board, including the extent to which the current composition of the Board reflects a diverse mix of knowledge, experience, skills and backgrounds, including an appropriate number of women directors.
