(b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

The Board of Directors have adopted the Company's Manual on Corporate Governance to provide a framework for the effective governance of the Company. The Board recognizes that its primary responsibility is to foster the long-term success of the Company and to build long-term value for the Company's shareholders, consistent with the Board's fiduciary duties. The Company has only one class of share, with one-share-one-vote policy. It gives minority stockholders the right to propose the holding of meetings and the items for discussion in the agenda that relate directly to the business of the corporation. The Company is committed at all times to fully disclose material information dealings for the interest of the stakeholders.

(c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission? –The Board reviews the vision and mission of the Company as often as deemed necessary. Moving forward, the Corporation will consider the review of the vision/mission at least every five years as part of its policy.

(iv) Has the company set a limit on the number of board seats in other companies (publicly listed, ordinary and companies with secondary license) that an individual director or CEO may hold simultaneously? In particular, is the limit of five board seats in other publicly listed companies imposed and observed? If yes, briefly describe other guidelines:

The Company observes the limit in the number of board seats in other listed companies, but it is not strictly implementing such policy. Likewise, the company sees to it that the members of the board are committed to exercise their roles and responsibilities as directors regardless of the number of board seats they have in other companies.

	Guidelines	Maximum Number of Directorships in other companies
Executive Director	The Nomination Committee shall consider the following guidelines in determining the number of directorships for the members of the Board: The nature of the business of the Corporation which he is a director; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Age of the director; • Number of directorships/active memberships and officerships in other corporations or organizations; and • Possible conflict of interest. The optimum number shall be related to the capacity of a director to perform his duties diligently in general.	The CEO and other executive directors shall submit themselves to a low indicative limit on membership in other corporate Boards. The same low limit shall apply to independent, non-executive directors who serve as fulltime executives in other corporations. In any case, the capacity of directors to serve with diligence shall not be compromised.

Accountabilities	Ensure effective operation of the Board and its committees in conformity with the highest standards of corporate governance; Ensure effective communication with shareholders, host governments and	Be responsible to the Board for the performance of the business consistent with agreed plans, strategies and policies; Develop an organizational structure and establish processes and systems

	other relevant constituencies and that the views of these groups are understood by the Board	to ensure the efficient organization of resources.
Deliverables	Promote effective relationships and communications between non-executive directors and members of the Group Executive Committee; Promote effective relationships and communications between non-executive directors and members of the Group Executive Committee; Establish a harmonious and open relationship with the Chief Executive.	Ensure that financial results, business strategies and, where appropriate, targets and milestones are communicated to the investment community; Develop processes and structures to ensure that capital investment proposals are reviewed thoroughly, that associated risks are identified and appropriate steps taken to manage the risks; Establish a close relationship of trust with the Chairman, reporting key developments to him in a timely manner and seeking advice and support as appropriate.

3) Explain how the board of directors plan for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

The Board and the Executive Management evaluates potential and suitable candidates for executive positions.

4) Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain. - The Board consists of a combination of executive and nonexecutive directors (including independent directors) in order that no director or small group of directors can dominate the decision-making process of the company. The directors have vast experiences in diverse industries and have notable academic background.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain. - The non-executive directors should possess such qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board. All incumbent NEDs have experience in industries that company belongs to.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director
Role	Manage the conflict between their management responsibilities and their fiduciary duties as a director in the best interests of the company.	Ensure that the CEO and the Board as a whole concentrate on maximizing long-term shareholder value. Work cooperatively with their executive colleagues and demonstrate	Oversight of company financial reporting process and disclosure of its financial information. Recommending to Board on the appointment, re-appointment and if

		objectivity and robust independence of judgment in their decision making.	required replacement or removal of statutory auditor and fixation of audit fees.

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

Independence - a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director.

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain. – The Company's existing Independent Directors have served as such for less than five years. The Company will comply with the term limit set by the SEC in its Memo Circular No. 9 Series of 2011.

5) Changes in the Board of Directors (Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors)

(a) Resignation/Death/Removal - NONE

Indicate any changes in the composition of the Board of Directors that happened during the period:

Name	Position	Date of Cessation	Reason

B. CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT & ETHICS

- 1) Discuss briefly the company's policies on the following business conduct or ethics affecting directors, senior management and employees:

Business Conduct & Ethics	Directors	Senior Management	Employees
(a) Conflict of Interest	Directors, Executive Officers and Employees owe a fiduciary duty to the Company that requires them to act in the best interest of the Company. Actual and potential conflicts of interest should be avoided or otherwise identified, disclosed, and explained in sufficient detail to enable valid judgments to be made on their adverse impact. The persons who are conflicted should not participate in the discussion and decision on the issue in question, nor be entitled to vote on any resolution where they are conflicted. B. Financial Risks

On the other hand, the Company has policies on financial risks as stated in its Annual Report (SEC Form 17-A), which are as follows:

The main risks arising from the use of financial instruments are equity price risk, market price risk, foreign currency risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and interest rate risk. The Group's BOD reviews and approves policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarized below.

The sensitivity analyses have been prepared on the following bases:

- Equity price risk - movements in equity indices
- Market Price risk - movements in one-year historical coal prices
- Interest rate risk - market interest rate on unsecured bank loans
- Foreign currency risk - yearly movement in the foreign exchange rates

Equity price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair values of equities decrease as a result of changes in the levels of equity indices and the value of individual stocks. The Group manages the equity price risk through diversification and placing limits on individual and total equity instruments.

Market price risk

Market price risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates.
